PURPOSE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE HANDBOOK

This Student/Parent Handbook contains established policies and procedures for the 2018-2019 school year. Since it is not possible for a Handbook to address every situation that may arise during a school year, the school administration reserves the right to amend or revoke the policies and procedures in this Handbook at any time as circumstances may require. When changes are made to the Handbook, parents and students will be informed of the change in writing in a timely manner, and this will include a statement about when the change will take effect.

This handbook is a contract with Rosati-Kain. BY RETURNING THE SIGNED FORM, STUDENTS AND PARENTS ARE AGREEING TO ABIDE BY AND SUPPORT THE MISSION AND POLICIES CONTAINED IN THIS HANDBOOK.

These policies and procedures most frequently address expectations of students. Obligations of the adults in the R-K community are implied. Adults are to assist students in acting with integrity, honesty, and respect. If there is clear indication of dishonesty on the part of students or adults, the school has the responsibility to apply appropriate sanctions. It is possible that parental dishonesty or efforts to undermine school policy could breach both trust and contract seriously enough to result in the termination of the relationship between the school and the family.

While school authorities are not able to fulfill every request, we commit ourselves and our staff to listen to needs and concerns presented in a timely manner and to develop a plan of action that balances the concerns to the best of our ability. While no handbook is complete or perfect, we have attempted to provide the information you need for productive communication.

The planning tools of the agenda are designed to help you take an active part in creating academic success. Successful students attend school regularly and are prepared for all classroom activities. Every student must keep an agenda throughout the year. Limited replacements are available for $10.00.

This handbook is available to parents through the R-K Community tab of the Rosati-Kain website. Parents may also request a hard copy of this handbook.

Carefully review this handbook, sign the documentation form and return it to school by Friday, August 24, 2018.

HISTORY OF ROSATI-KAIN HIGH SCHOOL

Rosati-Kain High School began in September, 1911. The Rosati Center staffed by the School Sisters of Notre Dame and located in south St. Louis at St. Francis de Sales, and the Kain Center staffed by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet and situated at St. Teresa of Avila in north St. Louis were founded. The Southside center received its name from the first bishop of St. Louis, Joseph Rosati, C.M., who served the diocese from 1827 to 1843. The Kain Center was named in memory of John Joseph Kain who from 1895 to 1903 guided the archdiocese as its second archbishop.

In 1912 the Rosati and Kain Centers were joined to form the present Rosati-Kain High School which was located at that time at Grand and Lucas Avenues. The girls' high school remained at the site until 1919 when the Archdiocese purchased the Hayes mansion on the northeast corner of Lindell and Newstead. On the occasion of his silver Episcopal jubilee in 1921, Archbishop John Joseph Glennon authorized a drive in the diocese for a quarter of a million dollars. This gift brought to reality the present Rosati-Kain High School.

Rosati-Kain continues its philosophy of developing creative thinking and responsible freedom in its students. More than 12,000 members of the alumnae witness to the success of Rosati-Kain. The Rosati-Kain students of today are developing the possibilities of tomorrow.

PHILOSOPHY

Rosati-Kain places emphasis on creative thinking and responsible freedom lived in the context of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which calls each of us to actualize the potential that lies within. To think creatively is to search out, discover, analyze, and test one's thoughts, feelings, and actions in relation to the ideas and wisdom that comprise our religious, academic, and aesthetic heritage. To be responsibly free is to make informed personal decisions, to be accountable for one's actions, and to respect the rights of others. The value we place on creative thinking and responsible freedom, thus defined, is the core that animates Rosati-Kain and gives direction to the education the school offers.

It follows that we value the individual highly, and encourage her to explore alternatives and develop personal values and resources to deal with life in a way fulfilling to her and beneficial to society. Within the context of a community of unique persons, we seek to foster the faith and compassion characteristic of a Christian.

It follows further that we value a climate that seeks to provide for a variety of styles of learning in which each person gradually comes to a self-direction and a self-discipline which allows her to deal creatively with a constantly changing world.

School Song

We stand as women of Rosati-Kain
Joined in mission, faith and love,
Living lives of integrity, justice and peace
Seeking the guidance of our God above.
We stand as sisters with a common bond:
Joy, hope and strength from friendship we gain.
Eyes on the future, honoring our past,
Grateful to you, Rosati-Kain! (2x)

Student absences are usually due to student illness, emergencies, unavoidable appointments, or a death in the family. Work missed must be made up in a timely manner according to the policy set by each teacher.

I. Hours

- A. The café is open at 6:00 in the morning for students to wait for the rest of the building to open.

II. Absence

Students are considered absent whenever they are away from school during school hours except for school-sponsored or school-sanctioned co-curricular activities.

Students who must be excused for medical, dental, funeral, or other reasons during school hours are considered absent. For these types of absences a written notice should be sent to the school in advance by a parent/guardian stating the time, length, and reason for absence.

- A. An important component of academic success is a habit of consistent attendance and punctuality. Although a student may be very conscientious about making up assignments that are missed due to absence, there is no way to recreate the experience of any particular classroom presentation or discussion. The personal interaction, which takes place among the students and teachers, is an integral part of education.
- B. A student participating in a school-sponsored event during the school day is not considered absent.
 - 1. She must inform the teachers of classes to be missed in order to arrange for make-up work.

 - 3. Any teacher may recommend that a student not attend a field trip for academic reasons.
- C. If a student is not in class, teachers will notify the main office. When a student arrives after 8:00 a.m. she must sign-in at the main office. She will be issued an admit slip. - A. Parents are strongly encouraged to coordinate all absences with Rosati-Kain's calendar. Student's work missed as a result of an extended absence may not be accepted for full credit.

- B. If a student plans to be absent, she must present a note to the office one week prior to the absence, and follow the planned absence procedure.
- C. If the planned absence will last three or more days, the student must communicate directly with the administration and present the extended absence form to each of her teachers.
- D. Failing to follow this procedure may result in make-up work not being accepted for credit.

IV. Early dismissal

- A. Parents are to schedule out-of-school appointments after dismissal, on non-school days, or on weekends whenever possible.
- B. Early excuses from school should be an exception. Unscheduled time is part of the school day.
- C. If it is necessary for a student to miss a portion of the school day, a note from a parent or guardian indicating the time and reason for the early dismissal must be presented to the office by 8:00 a.m. on the day of the early dismissal.
- D. The student is to sign out in the office when she leaves and sign in when she returns.

- E. If a student is tardy more than 5 times a semester she will receive a demerit for each subsequent tardy. Additionally, following the tenth tardy, the student and her parents may be required to conference with the administration to develop a plan to improve promptness. Excessive tardies may result in a suspension or withdrawal for cause.
- F. The individual classroom teachers handle class tardiness. In the case of excessive classroom tardiness students will be referred to the administration, may be scheduled, or receive a demerit.

VI. Absence procedures

- A. On the day of the absence a parent or guardian must inform the school by telephone or e-mail before 8:15 a.m. and give the reason for the absence.

- B. When returning to school following an absence, the student must:

MLA Quick Style Guide
(½ inch from top)

Kain 1

(1 inch from top)

Rosie T. Kain

Mrs. Kougar

Class Name, Section #

27 September 20xx

Centered Title with Appropriate Capitalization

Beginning with the heading, everything in an MLA paper is double-spaced. Also, at the beginning of each paragraph, a student should indent five spaces (one-half inch). If she has a long, direct quote, which is more than four regular typed lines, it should appear like this:

The quote, since it is indented, does not require quotation marks. It is usually introduced with a colon and should also be double-spaced. The left side of the quote is indented ten spaces or one inch. The right side, however, remains unjustified, the same as the rest of the paper. When a student cites a long quote, the parenthetical citation (complete with the author's last name and page number of the source) follows the final period. (Yann 34)

If a student were to continue her paragraph with an inference or a drawn conclusion, she would start flush left at the one-inch margin (which, by the way, should be formatted all the way around each page). For shorter quotes that are blended into the text or for borrowed material of any kind (no one should ever begin a sentence with a quotation), a student would place the parenthetical citation before the final period (Morris 9).

In addition, transitions are always appropriate when a student moves from idea to idea. Furthermore, a student who uses a blended direct quote should close its quotation marks before the citation, and in doing so, "students should be able to document sources correctly, clearly, and without risk of plagiarism" (Hacker 4). Finally, size 12, Times New Roman font is appropriate for most research papers or essays.
