Welcome

Dear Friends,

Thank you for celebrating Rosati-Kain's 5th Annual Kaleidoscope Dinner Auction with us. I want to extend a special thank you for all that you do to strengthen the fabric of Rosati-Kain and to support Catholic education and empowerment of our young women—our future leaders. Your generous support of tonight's dinner auction directly impacts our students. Your gifts tonight give us the financial flexibility to address our most urgent needs in areas such as academic and student programming, faculty development, technology and facility upgrades, and tuition assistance.

Tonight promises to be a wonderful evening! We hope you will enjoy the lively entertainment, delicious food, and wonderful friends. We are grateful for our supportive community and its exceptional generosity. This special night would not be possible without you. I would also like to extend my sincere gratitude to Stephanie Boyd '06, Lisa Hart, Anna Nguyen, and Chris Rollins who have worked so hard to make this night possible. And, of course, we are all indebted to the many volunteers who have given so freely of themselves to ensure that we have a fantastic evening together tonight!

Most importantly, I am grateful for the young women who bring Rosati-Kain to life. In their kindness to each other, in their concern for the world around them, and in their commitment to a tomorrow better than today, we find joy and hope.

Gratefully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Dr. Elizabeth Ann Goodwin". The script is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each word being capitalized and prominent.

Thank You

We are so very pleased and honored that you have chosen to spend this evening with us! We would like to thank our many parent volunteers who have helped to ensure this evening is an enjoyable experience for you and a successful event for Rosati-Kain. We definitely could not do this without you! Special thanks to Chris Rollins for her constant support of and dedication to the Kaleidoscope Auction!

To our student volunteers, thank you for donating your time to R-K. We appreciate your enthusiasm and hard work.

We are grateful to our facilities team, Andy Anderson and Chris Comerford, for their ongoing assistance throughout these many months of planning.

Thank you to Mr. McNamee and our faculty for their commitment to our school. Their continued support of the Kaleidoscope Auction is vital to its success!

And last but not least, we extend a very special thank you to Stephanie Boyd '06 and Dr. Elizabeth Ann Goodwin for their support, guidance, and leadership.

Why Kaleidoscope?

The theme of our Dinner Auction, Kaleidoscope, is borrowed from a Rosati-Kain tradition, beginning in the 1960s. The Kaleidoscope Festival was a celebration of the arts for R-K staff and students. We've brought back pieces of that tradition, with student artists such as the painters and pianists you've seen tonight. This theme is a meaningful way for us to honor the women who came before us and inspire the young women of Rosati-Kain into the future. The kaleidoscope is such a powerful symbol of change and beauty. You may remember the toys from your childhood, looking through the glass to see the fractured colors, each one beautiful and continuously changing to create something new. As we move into our future, we see Rosati-Kain through the lens of this kaleidoscope. We are a beautiful legacy (113 years!) of strong and educated women, wonderful in our present state, and even more inspiring as we embrace change and move into the future.
